Â JAC appreciated the enthusiastic preparations by the leadership and rank and file in Chandigarh Circle for making the ensuing Strike on 6th November another victorious one.Â JAC considered the report on INFORMAL DISCUSSIONS that were held between the Management andÂ Leaders of both the Federations on 23rdÂ Formal Discussions on 30thÂ the Management so as to give fair trial to the discussions.Â DISCUSSIONS WITH MANAGEMENT: , at 12.00 Noon the meeting commenced. Executive Director, Shri. S. Chandrasekhran addressedÂ the Joint Action Committee. He expressed the hope that issues would be resolved amicably through theÂ In the discussions that followed UNDERMENTIONED common issues FOCUSSED by the JAC in wereÂ discussed and satisfactory conclusions arrived at. Minutes of the Discussions being sent separately. 1. ATTACK ON BILATERALISM 2. SANCTITY OF UNDERSTANDINGS REACHED THROUGH BILATERAL DUSCUSSIONS 3. ATTACK ON TRADE UNION RIGHTS 4. ADEQUATE MANPOWER SUPPLY TO THE BRANCHES. 5. EXPLOITATION OF WORKFORCE 5. IMPLEMENTATION OF UNDERSTANDINGS REACHED WITH THE RESPECTIVE FEDERATIONS. On the next day, 31st October, Meetings were held with AIUCBOF in the morning and with AIUCBEF inÂ the afternoon to discuss issues that are awaiting implementation. In both the meetings in the absenceÂ of decisive approach finality could not be reached. Management proposed another round of discussionsÂ with both Federations in the third week of November 2013. Management reiterated their appeal toÂ reconsider our decision in pursuing the ensuing Strikes and agitational programmes.Â October a resounding Success. JAC congratulated the entire rankÂ Â October and the invitation of the Management to JAC forÂ Â and 31st. JAC decided to accept the invitation and resume discussions withÂ Joint Action Committee met again in the night of 31st October 2013. JAC while expressing satisfactionÂ over the conclusions arrived at on the Common issues, was apprehensive of approach of theÂ Management on other issues which are awaiting implementation for unduly long time. JAC was ofÂ the view that there is no merit in considering the appeal of the management in withdrawing theÂ call of agitation. However keeping in view the continuation of discussions, Strike calls scheduled onÂ November in Chandigarh Circle, 13thÂ may be RESCHEDULED and clubbed with the STRIKE ON 27thÂ programmes have been kept in abeyance. Thus JAC after consulting the respective State units hasÂ decided to observe the Strike on 27thÂ emerge out of the discussions proposed to be held between 19thÂ and the Management.Â Comrades, struggle is far from over. We have reached a crucial stage. We shall spare no stone unturnedÂ in bringing out satisfactory conclusions on the issues concerning our ranks through discussions. ButÂ if the Management chooses to fail in HONOURING their commitment we shall be left with no optionÂ except to carry forward the movement. Hence, we call upon our ranks to continue to remain in theÂ battle field with the same spirit, zeal, enthusiasm and determination.Â March ahead, keep up the fighting spirit, victory shall be ours.
