

ALL INDIA BANK STRIKE now on 18th DEC 2013 - not on 19TH DEC 2013

12/12/2013 13:01 by admin

Units are aware that UFBU has given its call for All India Bank Strike on our demands for immediate wage revision and to stop the banking sector reforms. Since 19th December happens to be a holiday in a few places, it has been decided that the Strike will be observed on 18th December, 2013.

Units are requested to inform our branch units and members about the change of date. Since most of our leaders and large number of our members would be in Delhi to participate in the Parliament Morcha programme on 11th and 12th December, 2013 and hence would be away from their respective places during next week, all care should be taken to ensure that the strike call reaches all our members so that the strike is implemented successfully.

UFBU has today served its Notice on the IBA. The UFBU has also given the following preparatory programmes:

5-12-2013 Letters by all Constituent Unions of UFBU and their affiliates addressed to Chairman, Indian Banks Association

6-12-2013 Mass Demonstrations in all State capitals and other major centres

16-12-2013 Badge Wearing

17-12-2013 Mass Demonstrations, rallies, processions at all centres

18-12-2013 ALL INDIA STRIKE demonstrations, rallies